Brent Weiss named to Forbes Magazine 2012 “30 under 30” in Finance

Forbes.com December 19, 2011 – Brent Weiss from Brotman Financial Group in Baltimore, MD, was named to Forbes Magazine’s 2012 “30 Under 30” list as one of the top young professionals in the financial industry who aren’t waiting to reinvent the world. Forbes, leaning on the wisdom of its readers and the greatest minds in business, selected 30 individuals less than 30 years of age, in 12 professional fields, who are making a difference right now. Forbes Magazine asked its readers and 12 panels of industry experts, “Who, in short, under the age of 30, matters?” From thousands of nominations, 360 up-and-comers were chosen.

Brent had the following to say on being named to the list, "Being selected by Forbes magazine is a reflection of the environment in which we live and work at Brotman Financial Group every day. It is a system that rewards hard work and commitment and creates opportunities cultivating the next generation of financial planners. I am excited to share this with my colleagues at Brotman Financial."

Brent and the full list of the “30 Under 30” can be found on Forbes.com and will be published in the January issue of Forbes Magazine.

About Us

At Brotman Financial Group, Inc. we offer holistic financial advice and help coordinate every detail of our clients’ financial worlds, from investing and wealth management to tax and estate planning. During our planning process we thoroughly evaluate every aspect of a client’s finances, then work as a team—calling on specialists in key areas, as needed—to create a tailored, coherent plan that addresses our client’s specific needs and goals and helps prioritize and allocate resources to meet them. The key is not just the analysis done in formulating a plan, but the synthesis created when a plan has been designed collaboratively.
